

Argo Insurance Announces Partnership with Front Line Safety

HAMILTON, Bermuda – December 4, 2017 – Argo Insurance, a member of Argo Group International Holdings, Ltd. (NASDAQ: AGII), and an international underwriter of specialty insurance and reinsurance products, today announced a partnership with Front Line Safety to enhance value for restaurant and grocery store policyholders. Front Line Safety is one of the top U.S. providers of safety products and personal protective equipment with a special focus on the grocery and restaurant industries.

“Argo Insurance is pleased to partner with Front Line Safety and offer our policyholders reduced prices on safety products that will help them reach their safety goals,” said Rooney Gleason, president, Argo Insurance. “We are at the forefront of providing innovative, technology-based loss prevention solutions to policyholders. This is an opportunity to broaden the benefits we provide.”

Through this partnership, both new and existing Argo Insurance policyholders will receive special discounts on safety supplies and personal protective equipment using a customized and curated e-commerce site. The discount applies to a wide selection of the highest quality products, including heat-resistant gloves and mitts, floor mats, box cutters, gloves, goggles, first-aid supplies, and more. Argo Insurance policyholders pay the low prices typically paid by the largest companies – regardless of their operation size.

“Partnering with the team at Front Line Safety is another step forward as we expand the offerings for our policyholders,” said Kevin Sandelin, director of risk management services, Argo Insurance. “With their expertise in safety products tailored specifically for grocery, restaurant, and retail operations, we are excited to begin this unique program, and continue to help our policyholders reduce their hazard risks.”

“Front Line Safety looks forward to partnering with Argo to provide solid solutions to risk management problems in a frictionless manner,” said Michael Kopulsky, president, Front Line Safety.
